

Workshop Name:

First Responder Training on Mass Care/Mass Sheltering and the CHUG Plan

Workshop Overview:

The complete or partial evacuation of a healthcare facility requires enormous resources and coordination. This workshop is designed to provide the participant with the knowledge and understanding of how the Collaborative Healthcare Urgency Group Mutual Aid system to evaluate, triage, transport and relocate patients can be an asset to any existing Mass Care/Mass Sheltering or Evacuation Plan.

Recommended Participants:

Law Enforcement, Fire, EMS and Emergency Management and other First Responders

Course Length:

2.5 Hours

Prerequisites:

None

Continuing Education Credits

None

Course Objectives:

- To Understand a collaborative approach to Evacuation, Transportation and Relocation of patients during a disaster
- To gain knowledge of Evacuation Planning integration with local, county, regional, tribal and federal planning efforts
- To understand Mass Care and Mass Sheltering principles
- To understand and Identify the Physical, Medical and Spiritual/ Emotional needs of patients during a disaster
- To gain knowledge on evacuation principles and techniques
- To learn about the CHUG Plan

Course Agenda:

- Welcome, Refreshments and Networking- 10:00 min
- Introductions-10:00 min
- Facility Logistics and Safety-5:00 min
- Course Overview and Objectives-5:00 min
- Interactive Workshop with Working Lunch (optional depending on time slot selected) 90:00 min
- Workshop Hot Wash/Participant Feedback- 20:00 min
- The Next Steps and Other Training Opportunities-5:00 min
- Workshop Evaluations -5:00 min